

I am writing to protest LPFM stations expanding services in a way that would take priority over current FM translators. My favorite station, KLOVE, has wonderful family-friendly programming that has a positive impact nationwide. This community would be adversely effected if KLOVE was forced off the air(too few great stations of this caliber exist). Wholesome values should be encouraged, not forced off the air.